What information do we collect?

To help prevent unwarranted disclosure of our consumer's nonpublic personal information and secure it from theft, we utilize secure computer networks and restrict access to nonpublic personal information about our consumers to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to our consumers. In addition, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable laws and regulations to guard our customers' nonpublic personal information. We strive to protect our consumer's nonpublic personal information obtained through the consumer's use of our website. When you enter sensitive information such as credit card number on our order forms, we encrypt that information using secure socket layer technology (SSL). .

Regardless of the technology used to provide a secure transfer of information, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed 100% safe. Since we cannot guarantee or warrant the security of any information you transmit to or obtain from our website, you do so at your own risk. Once the transmission of data has been received, we will do our best to protect your information.

Our website may contain links or reference third party vendors (such as PayPal as a payment service alternative). Third party vendors linking with our website or referred to in our website are responsible for the operation and maintenance of their sites. We have no control over their site configuration or their privacy policy. If you choose to access third party vendor sites, you choose to do so at your own risk. We suggest you always read the privacy policy of a linked site before you make a decision to disclose non-public personal information or commercial information. In addition, we have links to third party sites (non-vendors) and their privacy policies too govern the collection and use of data that you may share with these sites.

We collect nonpublic personal information from you when you register on the site for order, e-mail and payment.

When ordering or registering, we may ask you for your name, e-mail address, mailing address, phone number, credit card information or other information. You may, however, visit our site anonymously. We also collect information about gift recipients so that we can fulfill the gift purchase. The information we collect about gift recipients is not used for marketing purposes. Like many websites, we use "cookies" to enhance your experience and gather information about visitors and visits to our websites.

Please refer to the "Do we use 'cookies'?" section below for information about cookies and how we use them.

How do we use your information?

We may use the information we collect from you when you register and purchase products.

How do we protect visitor information?

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information. Your personal information is contained behind secured networks and is only accessible by a limited number of persons who have special access rights to such systems, and are required to keep the information confidential. When you place orders or access your personal information, we offer the use of a secure server. All sensitive/credit information you supply is transmitted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) PayPal technology and then encrypted into our databases to be only accessed as stated above.
